

ADVENT.

11.

In that day there shall be a root of Jesse, which shall stand for an ensign of the people.—Isaiah xi. 10.

TUNE, No. 36.

Behold the Lord eternal
Descends, with man to make abode :
Our flesh on him he taketh,
Us to redeem and raise to God !
Behold the promis'd Saviour,
The long'd for Prince of Peace :
Beneath his gracious sceptre
Our fears and sorrows cease.
Lo ! Israel's consolation
Descends, the earth to bless ;
Behold thy King, O Sion !
The Branch of Righteousness.

12.

When God bringeth back the captivity of his people, Jacob shall rejoice, and Israel shall be glad.—Ps. liiii. 6.

TUNE, No. 4.

Immanuel, we sing to thee,
Pure source of life and love most free :
Our light most fair, our morning star,
Lord of all lords and lands afar.
To thee with angel-hosts we sing,
To thee our highest praise we bring :
That thou, our long-expected Lord,
Dost give to faith its bright reward.

ADVENT.

Lo! in the ages far away,
The hearts of thine desir'd this day:
This hope through ages did inspire
Our fathers with divine desire.

O that the Lord our bands would break,
And bring us aid for Zion's sake;
When He to Zion shall descend,
Then Israel's joy shall know no end.

13.

Lift up your heads, O ye gates, and the King of Glory shall come in.—Ps. xxiv. 9.

TUNE, No. 5.

Sing Hosanna! Bless his name,
Who with peace to earth appeareth:
Him with heavenly hosts proclaim,
See, his light our darkness cheereth:
Jesus our Immanuel sing,
Hail our meek, our lowly King.

Sing Hosanna, sing, rejoice,
None his gracious heart disdaineth;
Let the children raise their voice,
In the child-like heart he reigneth.
Who would enter with their King,
Must an humble spirit bring.
