

Verily I say unto you, that many prophets and righteous men have desired to see those things which ye see, and have not seen them; and to hear those things which ye hear, and have not heard them.—Matt. xiii. 17.

- 1 IMMANUEL, to Thee we sing,
Of life and love th' eternal Spring :
Thou Light of Heav'n, Thou Star of Morn,
Lord of all lords, yet virgin-born.
- 2 To Thee, with angel-hosts, we raise '
Our noblest strains of grateful praise,
That Thou, our long-expected Guest,
Hast deign'd with us on earth to rest.
- 3 Lo, in the ages far away,
Full many a heart desir'd this day :
For this in hope the Prophets yearn'd,
This Patriarchs old in faith discern'd.
- 4 And now, O Saviour, Thou art come,
The manger is Thy lowly home :
At Bethl'hem's inn a stranger Thou,
Though all the heav'ns before Thee bow !
- 5 For this will we, to Thee our King,
Our joyful hallelujahs sing,
With angel-choirs who Thee adore
In realms of light for evermore.

Sacrifice and offering Thou didst not desire.—Ps. xl. 6.

- 1 LORD, by vision, sign, or token,
To Thy people, from above,
Thou from earliest times hast spoken
In the warning voice of love.
